

EARLINGTON, HOPKINS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1899.

NO. 29

TENTH YEAR.

BRYAN AND PIKE'S PEAK.

The Average Grade Does Not Agree With His Favorite Ratio.

Kansas City "Journal" (Rep) — In originality which is lacking in Mr. Bryan's orations is not dead, only sleeping. He has just achieved a triumphal march which puts to shame the garlanded progressions of Roman monarchs, and the stately processions of the Field of the Cloth of Gold. Mr. Bryan has made a shouting progress up Pike's Peak.

He is still there. That is, no reports of the descent have been received. Mr.— erstwhile Colonel—William Jennings Bryan, or pretty much everywhere there are railroads, is standing on a frosty and somewhat crumbling mass of red granite, 14,151 feet above the level of the sea. He is able to look down on Cripple Creek, the resort of goldbugs and deputy sheriffs, while Leadville, of silver renown, lies just to the west, behind the Mosquito Mountains, as the Promised Land to this Moses of the crocodile.

But this is not all. Mr. Bryan has sent a telegram to an admiring world, calling attention to the alleged fact that the average grade of the road is one foot in sixteen. Incidentally, this is a whopper, the average being more than double that, and the least grade being one half more than that, but Mr. Bryan doesn't allow truth to interfere with rhetoric. But even when regarded as true the statement pointedly illustrates the fundamental weakness of Mr. Bryan's mind.

Men ride, not over average grades, but over actual grades. When Mr. Bryan started from Manitou he started over a grade of 11 to 1, but when he reached Windy point the ratio was 25 per cent, or 4 to 1, and it so continued until he reached the top.

The Reviewing Officers.

So with gold and silver. If you go back far enough through the centuries you can figure an average ratio of 16 to 1, and thus smooth out the facts as Bryan did the grades on Pike's Peak. But in order to do business you must run finance on the grade practicable at the particular time and place.

If Mr. Bryan ever gets down to earth again, he will change ratio many times between the summit and the Ute Iron Springs.

THE SITUATION SERIOUS.

Secretary McCormack Finds Five Smallpox Cases in Christian County.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 18.—Dr. J. N. McCormack, secretary of the State Board of Health, reports the smallpox situation here to be grave. Today he found five fully developed cases four miles south of Hopkinsville, with still others showing symptoms of the contagion. An unlicensed doctor in the vicinity had pronounced numerous cases, to be chickenpox, which proved to be varioloid. He failed to report the prevalence of the epidemic, and indignation over his negligence is general. Twenty-five or more negroes have been exposed. Dr. McCormack recommends the most stringent measures for the protection of the city. Mounted deputies armed with shotguns will patrol the district prescribed.

QUICK RELIEF

For the Sting of the Now Notorious "Kissing Bug."

No citizen of Earlinton up to this writing, has been attacked by the "kissing bug," but that is no reason why the little pest should not yet get in its work. In case anyone should be so unfortunate, the following remedy, which is now going the rounds of the press, is said to be a "dead shot" in this case:

As soon as possible after having been "kissed" by a kissing bug, place a large piece of ham fat upon the spot and let it remain there for some time. The patient will experience relief at once, but the ham fat should not be taken off just then, as the poison in the "kiss" must be drawn out. The fat accomplishes this, in about half an hour.

Less Trust in Watered Silver. From the Indianapolis Journal (Rep)

There is a great deal less disposition now to trust in Providence for the 50 cents of water in a silver dollar when the issue is unlimited than there was three years ago.

Warner Campbell is sojourning at Dawson for his health.

A SCENE OF ANIMATION.

Progress of the Returned Oregon Volunteers and California Slangual Corps Through Frisco.

WENT INTO CAMP AT THE PRESIDIO.

The People of San Francisco Just Turned Themselves Loose in Giving the War-Warn House a Hearty and Noisy Welcome—The Men Made a Splendid Appearance.

In originality which is lacking in Mr. Bryan's orations is not dead, only sleeping. He has just achieved a triumphal march which puts to shame the garlanded progressions of Roman monarchs, and the stately processions of the Field of the Cloth of Gold. Mr. Bryan has made a shouting progress up Pike's Peak.

He is still there. That is, no reports of the descent have been received. Mr.— erstwhile Colonel—William Jennings Bryan, or pretty much everywhere there are railroads, is standing on a frosty and somewhat crumbling mass of red granite, 14,151 feet above the level of the sea. He is able to look down on Cripple Creek, the resort of goldbugs and deputy sheriffs, while Leadville, of silver renown, lies just to the west, behind the Mosquito Mountains, as the Promised Land to this Moses of the crocodile.

But this is not all. Mr. Bryan has sent a telegram to an admiring world, calling attention to the alleged fact that the average grade of the road is one foot in sixteen. Incidentally, this is a whopper, the average being more than double that, and the least grade being one half more than that, but Mr. Bryan doesn't allow truth to interfere with rhetoric. But even when regarded as true the statement pointedly illustrates the fundamental weakness of Mr. Bryan's mind.

Men ride, not over average grades, but over actual grades. When Mr. Bryan started from Manitou he started over a grade of 11 to 1, but when he reached Windy point the ratio was 25 per cent, or 4 to 1, and it so continued until he reached the top.

The Reviewing Officers.

So with gold and silver. If you go back far enough through the centuries you can figure an average ratio of 16 to 1, and thus smooth out the facts as Bryan did the grades on Pike's Peak. But in order to do business you must run finance on the grade practicable at the particular time and place.

If Mr. Bryan ever gets down to earth again, he will change ratio many times between the summit and the Ute Iron Springs.

ADMIRAL DEWEY HEARD FROM

Gill Proceed to Trieste as Soon as Coal'd.

Where Officers and Men Will Get a Chance to Recuperate.

Newport, R. I., July 17.—The Newport Yacht Racing association gave out the following circular yesterday:

"The first races between the Columbia and Defender off this port, under the auspices of this association, will be held Friday, July 21. The start will be made from Brenton's lightship at 11 a. m., and the course will be a triangular one, but where the marks will be has not yet been decided upon. The date of the second race will be announced later."

"The committee finds it will be unable to furnish accommodation for the press, or the judges' boat will be a private yacht at the disposal of the committee."

DEATH OF AN OLD PIONEER.

A Man, Also, Who Had Seen Much Military Service for His Government.

Newport, Ky., July 17.—The Newport Yacht Racing association gave out the following circular yesterday:

"The first races between the Columbia and Defender off this port, under the auspices of this association, will be held Friday, July 21. The start will be made from Brenton's lightship at 11 a. m., and the course will be a triangular one, but where the marks will be has not yet been decided upon. The date of the second race will be announced later."

"The committee finds it will be unable to furnish accommodation for the press, or the judges' boat will be a private yacht at the disposal of the committee."

FRESH CHARGES WILL NOT GO.

Mr. De Beaufrepaire Will Not be Allowed to Formulate Fresh Charges Against Dreyfus.

Chicago, July 14.—Mrs. N. P. McCormick, widow of Cyrus H. McCormick, yesterday signified her intention of establishing and thoroughly equipping a manual training school to be operated in conjunction with the S. P. Lee Collegiate Institute at Jackson, Ky. This institute is an auxiliary of the University of Kentucky, and is located in the heart of the mountains of the eastern part of the state at the county seat of what was once known as "Bloody Breathitt."

Dr. L. H. Blanton, chancellor of the Central University of Kentucky, came here yesterday at the request of Mrs. McCormick, and the final arrangements for the gift were perfected.

Death of a Pioneer Woman.

Sioux City, Iowa, July 15.—Mrs. Tour Brugler, a pioneer woman of the northwest, and who was known along the Missouri from St. Louis to Montana, is dead, aged 73 years. She was the third wife of Theodore Brugler, a citizen of Sioux City's first settlers.

New Era to Wheat.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 17.—Patriot Carney, a Clarke county farmer, reports that a strange insect is doing some damage to wheat in his locality. He had 110 acres entirely destroyed.

A gay party of Madisonville men spent Tuesday evening at Lakeside Park, and indulged in the pleasures common on such occasions.

Jack Stokes and Bob Stevens spent Tuesday in Dawson.

Planters CUBAN OIL gives Cut, Burns, Bruises, Rheumatism and Sores. Price, 25 cents. Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

CAPE NOME GOLD FIELDS.

News Brought by the Steamer Alliance Indicates that It Will Prove Rich Field.

Seattle, Wash., July 15.—The steamer Alliance arrived from St. Michaels, Alaska. She is the first vessel to arrive from the mouth of the Yukon this season and brings adyles from the newly discovered gold field of Cape Nome.

When the Alliance left St. Michaels, the season was not far enough advanced to determine the future of the diggings. Prospectors were confident that the country would prove very rich. Colors were found almost everywhere throughout the zone, which is 35 miles square, and nearly all available ground has been staked. In some instances there are several claims to one property. As soon as winter comes in and material for staking ground is known.

From two to four dollars are common. Only one claim up has been made thus far. It was that of Edna Price and Louis Lane, on Claim No. 8, above Discovery, on Anvil creek. The gold is different from that of the Yukon, in that it is quite black, due to the color of the sand.

The price of the gold is $1,000.

Will the "Bushing Up" Work?

Whichever Horn She Chooses Gives Promise of Bringing Trouble in Its Train.

Inclined to Do Right if She Dared.

Many Are Involved in the Dreyfus Scandal, However, That a Disposition Is Becoming Manifest to Dash the Matter Up After the Trial at Rennes.

New York, July 15.—It is now stated, says the Paris correspondent of the Tribune, the present cabinet has decided in the event of the acquittal of Dreyfus, at Rennes, which is regarded as almost a certainty, to hush up the whole scandal. This is considered by political circles to be the vital question with which France will be confronted as soon as the court-martial, at Rennes, has pronounced its judgment.

Would the "Bushing Up" Work?

In spite of the weight of authority of M. Ribot and of the influential republican papers like the Temps and the Debats, people are beginning to ask whether such a policy of "bushing up" and of shielding those who are responsible for the terrible conspiracy against an innocent man would not destroy confidence in the republic.

For Truth and Justice.

A large and apparently incisive body of republicans, including, of course, all the radicals and socialists who, from the very outset of the Dreyfus affair, have been constantly on the side of truth and justice, and have thereby gained enormously in political power—show signs of hesitating on the most drastic investigation into all the circumstances of the Dreyfus conspiracy.

What Is Off Old Scores?

From the American point of view, the French republic has everything to gain and nothing to lose by probing the wound to the quick, and punishing the guilty. But prudent and experienced Frenchmen favor the policy of the "Sponge." "Wipe off all the old scores," they say, "and begin the exhibition with a clean slate." Punishment in France usually means retaliation, and retaliation leads to civil strife.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running the local governments, and that the people in question are willing to declare allegiance to the United States when troops are sent to protect them.

Manila, July 18.—The natives of the provinces of Albay, South Camarines and North Camarines are endeavoring to throw off the domination of the Tagals. It is reported that there has been fighting between the people of the provinces named and small bands of Tagals who were quartered upon them, running

The Bee

PAUL M. MOORE, Editor and Manager.

BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

(Incorporated.)

Entered the Postoffice at Lexington as Second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One Year, strictly in advance.....	$1.00
Six Months.....	.50
Three Months.....	.35
Single Copies.....	.05
Specimen copies mailed free on application.
Correspondence welcome in all parts of the country. Address us or particular.

THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1899.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

PRATT—We are authorized to announce Judge Clifton J. Pratt, of Illegible County, as a candidate for the nomination for Governor of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican party.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Governor,
W. S. TAYLOR,
Of Butler County.

For Lieutenant Governor,
JOHN MARSHALL,
Of Louisville.

For Secretary of State,
CALEB POWERS,
Of Knox County.

For Attorney General,
CLIFTON J. PRATT,
Of Hopkins County.

For Auditor,
REV. JOHN S. SWEENEY,
Of Bourbon County.

For Treasurer,
WALTER R. DAY,
Of Breathitt County.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
JOHN BURKE,
Of Campbell County.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,
CATT. J. W. THROCKMORTON,
Of Fayette County.

For Representative,
BEN T. ROBINSON.

HON. W. S. TAYLOR, the next Governor of Kentucky.

The ticket from start to finish is a good one and a sure winner.

HARMONY at every turn, all reports to the contrary, notwithstanding.

It is not to be forgotten that this end of the State will be heard from the day of the election.

The Louisville policemen were conspicuous only by their absence in the Lexington convention.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN's eye of suspicion rests upon Bill Goebel, and Mr. Bryan's friends throughout the State are speaking in no uncertain terms. Hark ye!

GOEBEL is convicted of duplicity out of his own mouth and through his own efforts at denying Capt. Stone's statement about the Louisville Convention outrage.

"THERE'S poetry in everything," observed the poet. Had that poet lived until the day of the late Democratic convention he would have exempted one thing—Bill Goebel, for instance.

The widow of Col. John Sandford, the man whom William Goebel shot and killed at Covington, has been adjudged insane by a court at Lexington. Voters are remembering these things and are becoming more and more unwilling to surrender Kentucky to the ambitions of this cold, relentless, unscrupulous political plunderer.

The most that has been said, by the Democratic press, of the Republican State ticket is, that it is "machine-made." It could have been said of it that it was honestly made, but that would have been throwing a reflection upon its own convention, you know. The fewer reflections cast in that direction by the Democratic press the better, they think. They doubtless do.

Holy horrors! "It's now a question of veracity—the Goebel-Stone controversy," says the Goebelites! What next? Bill Stone's worst enemies have never accused him of ever deviating from the truth; nor ought he to have been hung for any other act he ever committed. Mr. Stone may be said to be a clean man, a truthful man and a good citizen, notwithstanding his loss of faith in his good friend (?) Goebel.

The good women of Kentucky must be all against Goebel—a bachelor, a woman hater, the man who killed Col. John Sandford and sent his widow to the insane asylum. Gen. Taylor has a wife and seven children living, all of whom were with him at Lexington during the convention that nominated him for Governor. The sympathy of Kentucky women is with the man who builds rather than destroys homes and those seven children are good for the backing of many a mother in the grand old Commonwealth.

CAPT. W. J. STONE, of Kuttawa, promptly speaks out in reply to what purports to be Goebel's denial of the Captain's charges of breach of promise in the Democratic State convention. Capt. Stone says his written specific statements "ARE TRUE IN EVERY PARTICULAR, AND ANY STATEMENTS FROM ANY ONE TO THE CONTRARY ARE ABSOLUTELY FALSE." And he ends by writing, "My address is Kuttawa, Lyon county, Ky."

Capt. Stone's statements are direct and simple, and—the people believe—true. Goebel's attempted relutation is adroit, but it fails to meet the requirements of a plain, unvarnished tale and the people refuse to believe that Capt. Stone is a liar. Like the killing of Sandford, the rape of the Louisville convention follows Goebel.

JUDGE O'NEAL on Goebelism. Judge J. T. O'Neal, of Louisville, "a silver leader of position and influence who has no political ambition to serve" has this to say about Goebelism in a letter published in the Louisville Dispatch of Saturday:

We do not have anyone to suppose that we question the right of the majority to rule in all party affairs. But the work of the late convention does not represent the wish of a majority of the Democrats of Kentucky, either in or out of the convention.

The first step of that combination was to disband, without a hearing, nearly one-third of the bona-fide delegates.

We say without a hearing because they were denied a hearing before the convention.

They were bundled together, tossed into the convention together, voted on together and kicked out together. We admit some little time and embarrassment were saved by trying them all at once. So would the State save heavy costs if it would dump all of its prisoners into one court, hear them all together on the same evidence and then hang them together. But we leave this contention to take care of itself. May it like never be seen.

GORMAN OR BRYAN.

The impression grows that there is truth in the report that Mr. Goebel is helping Mr. Waterson to promote a movement to throw Kentucky to Gorman and defeat the nomination of Bryan in 1900. Judge Tarvin, who is perhaps closer to Mr. Bryan than any other Kentuckian wrote to the Democratic State Central Committee a letter which they refused to read, demanding that they make an announced announcement in favor of Bryan and the Chicago platform.

As an intimation that Judge Tarvin and other Bryan Democrats cannot be well pleased with the committee's refusal to "announce" or to consider his letter, note this extract from that document:

As for me, I would prefer the election of the Republic ticket to Democratic success based upon any suggestion or suspicion of a repudiation of the Chicago platform of 1896, or any part of it.

AGAINST GOEBEL.

JAMES J. MONTGOMERY SAYS CONFEDERATES WILL NOT SUPPORT HIM.

From the Louisville Dispatch:

James J. Montgomery, of 546 First street, says that nine out of ten of the confederate veterans of Kentucky will decline to support Goebel for governor. He has heard many of them express themselves on the subject, and knows how they feel in regard to the matter.

Mr. Montgomery fought under Maj. Gen. Wheeler, and has an interesting as well as an honorable career. He carefully preserves a document given him by General Wheeler in 1864 which instructs all soldiers to pass Mr. Montgomery through and inside the lines at all times.

STORE BURNED.

ONE OF THE LARGEST IN CHRISTIAN COUNTY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 15.—Lawrence Youitz's general merchandise store at Johnson, the largest in North Christian, was totally destroyed by fire, together with all the contents, early yesterday morning. The loss is between $10,000 and $15,000, and the insurance but $5,000.

The fire was of incendiary origin. The proprietor was in Louisville replenishing his stock.

NEW MONEY ORDERS.

A new money order will be issued beginning September 15.

It will be quite an improvement over those now in use in several respects. It will be of a much more convenient size and shape, not exceeding that of a bank check.

The principal change will be the giving of a receipt, an exact facsimile of the order, which will be redeemed after a reasonable length of time in case of the loss of the original. The marginal coupons denoting the value of the order will be dispensed with.

"Good Beginnings Make Good Endings."

You are making a good beginning when you commence to take Hood's Sarapalla for any trouble of your blood, stomach, kidneys or liver. Persistently taken, this great medicine will bring you the good ending of perfect health, strength and vigor.

Hood's Sarapalla
Never Disappoints.

MR. TAYLOR'S RISE

A Sketch of the Man Who is the Republican Standard Bearer.

BORN IN A LITTLE LOG CABIN.

A Student From Boyhood, Natural Orator, He Soon Became Popular, and Is Now Famous.

Lexington Correspondence to Commercial Tribune.

In this country of marvels there are none greater than the life histories of her most eminent sons. The transition from the cabin and humble calling to places of highest trust and honor occurs so often that many are prone to lose sight of the genuin which surrounds all obstacles and attains the goal it makes, and accept these successes as commonplaces. This should not be, for such lives are splendid testimonials of the liberality of our institutions and never failing inspirations to the youthful and ambitious of our land. In our own proud Commonwealth we have had many illustrious examples of the character suggested, and notable among these is that of the present Republican nominee for Governor.

William Sylvester Taylor was born in Butler County, October 10, 1853. His birthplace—as was fitting for one destined to receive high civic honors in after years—was a typical, old-fashioned log house, standing on the bank of Green River five miles away from Morgantown, the county seat. Poverty was his heritage; unquieted farm toil the occupation of his earlier years. At an early age he manifested a love for books and study, and as soon as his situation permitted—when he was about 15—he entered the free school of his neighborhood, and attended it during several sessions as regularly as his circumstances would allow. He took high rank as a student. He was devoted and thorough and his fine powers of declamation and debate soon won him a local name. His first definite ambition was to become a teacher. By diligent study—both at home and at school—he fitted himself for and engaged in this important work. For several years he taught school and prosecuted his studies, obtaining thereby a thorough English education. As a teacher he was very successful. All the energy and enthusiasm of his nature were thrown into the work with a force that no pupil could withstand.

A BORN ORATOR.

Bold, gifted with speech, and ambitious, it was but natural that he should incline to a political career. While yet in his teens he was making stump speeches, and his youthfulness, ability and life history all contributed to render him immensely popular with the people. He pursued the work of teaching in the schools of his county until 1862, when he became a candidate for County Clerk, and, after a contest—exciting and stubborn as only a local struggle may prove—he was triumphantly elected, and won the distinction of being the first person to defeat a Democratic candidate for that position in his county. He made an efficient officer, read law during his term, and at the conclusion thereof was admitted to the bar, and was made the Republican nominee for County Judge. This was in 1866, and for the first time in the history of the county a full Republican ticket for county offices was put in the field, a strict party fight was made, and that ticket elected. In 1868 he was chosen by his party as a delegate to the Republican National Convention, which met at Chicago. In 1870 he was renominated and re-elected County Judge. As such officer he made a fine record, and was pressed to offer for a third term, but declined to do so. During these last eight years of official life he practiced law and took high rank at the bar. In 1886 he was chosen the Third District member of the Republican State Committee and has been retained as such ever since.

AN ACTIVE POLITICIAN.

Meanwhile, in every campaign he was called into the field of active politics, and was recognized as the ablest advocate of Republicanism in the western part of the State. When the champions of Democracy invaded that section and challenged debate, he was almost invariably put forward as the representative of his party.

In 1895 the Western Kentucky Republicans offered Mr. Taylor as their candidate for Attorney General, and in the memorable campaign held in Louisville that year he received the nomination over a number of worthy opponents. In the brilliant campaign which followed he took the stump and made an active fight, and his magnificent speeches materially contributed to Republican success. He, together with the rest of the State ticket, was triumphantly elected, and for the first time in something like thirty years a Republican administration was installed at Frankfort.

As the law officer of the State, Mr. Taylor has made a most gratifying record. Not only has he recovered by suit thousands of dollars of franchise and other taxes due the Commonwealth, but his conduct of other litigation has been characterized with signal success. For instance, the action of the State vs. the Kentucky Chair Company, whereby $60,000 was recovered and paid into the Treasury; the fight against the lottery companies, which resulted in the annulment of their charters, and the suit against Barker, Auditor's agent of Jefferson County, wherein thousands of dollars which had been paid out without warrant of law during the former administration were recovered; also, the suit against the Southern Pacific Company, whereby that corporation was compelled to list and pay taxes on $1,000,000 worth of property from 1892 to 1896, and continuously thereafter on the same amount, which company has always theretofore escaped taxation altogether.

AN OPINION ON RAILROAD TAXES.

Another noteworthy instance of his legal ability and conscientious discharge of public duty was the giving of an opinion to the State Board of Valuation and Assessment on the subject of railroad franchise taxes, on which opinion was based the assessment and collection of $220,000 of franchise taxes against the railroads of the State. Aside from his official duties, he found time to lead the fight in the courts against the prison and election laws enacted by the last General Assembly. Notwithstanding his manifold and exacting duties as Attorney General, Mr. Taylor has participated in every campaign since his election to that office. Whenever the fight was fiercest, wherever the Democratic hosts were pressing hardest, there was he to be found upholding the banner of his party and battling for its supremacy. By his unwavering loyalty to its principles and candidates and his incessant activity and eloquent appeals in its behalf, he has endeared himself to the Republicans throughout the State, and his acquaintances with them has become a personal one.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE NOMINATION.

The campaign that Mr. Taylor has conducted to secure the nomination just accorded him has been a most remarkable one. Notwithstanding the fact that he was opposed by two splendid candidates—both of whom are men of recognized ability and popularity and both making active personal campaigns throughout the State—Mr. Taylor has quietly remained at Frankfort, submitting his claims to his party, and won the nomination by an overwhelming vote. His candidacy was opposed by three of the five Collectors of the State, and in the sections where he was thus opposed his strongest, most enthusiastic following developed. Not a single contest was presented by his friends to the convention and his nomination has been honorably won. All of which shows that he is the spontaneous choice of his party and a personal one.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE NOMINATION.

The campaign that Mr. Taylor has conducted to secure the nomination just accorded him has been a most remarkable one. Notwithstanding the fact that he was opposed by two splendid candidates—both of whom are men of recognized ability and popularity and both making active personal campaigns throughout the State—Mr. Taylor has quietly remained at Frankfort, submitting his claims to his party, and won the nomination by an overwhelming vote. His candidacy was opposed by three of the five Collectors of the State, and in the sections where he was thus opposed his strongest, most enthusiastic following developed. Not a single contest was presented by his friends to the convention and his nomination has been honorably won. All of which shows that he is the spontaneous choice of his party and a personal one.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE NOMINATION.

The campaign that Mr. Taylor has conducted to secure the nomination just accorded him has been a most remarkable one. Notwithstanding the fact that he was opposed by two splendid candidates—both of whom are men of recognized ability and popularity and both making active personal campaigns throughout the State—Mr. Taylor has quietly remained at Frankfort, submitting his claims to his party, and won the nomination by an overwhelming vote. His candidacy was opposed by three of the five Collectors of the State, and in the sections where he was thus opposed his strongest, most enthusiastic following developed. Not a single contest was presented by his friends to the convention and his nomination has been honorably won. All of which shows that he is the spontaneous choice of his party and a personal one.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THE NOMINATION.

The drouth is becoming a matter of serious consideration in very many counties of the State. Corn, fruits and vegetables are showing very plainly the absolute want of rain.

THE DROUGHT.

THE DROUGHT.

The drouth is becoming a matter of serious consideration in very many counties of the State. Corn, fruits and vegetables are showing very plainly the absolute want of rain.

THE DROUGHT.

candidate of the people.

Mr. Taylor's life history, his record as an efficient officer, his devotion to public duty, his marvelous energy, his skill as a political organizer, these, together with his thorough familiarity with affairs and his splendid powers as a debater and orator, combine to make him a magnificent candidate in the approaching struggle—a struggle more significant than any heretofore recorded in the history of the State. All those—whoever political affiliation—will oppose the course of Goebelism turn to him with instinctive confidence, believing that his leadership in this people's fight shall result in the people's victory in November.

IN 1895 Mr. Taylor married Miss Sarah B. Tanner, of his native county. Their union has been blessed with eight children, all of whom are living except the eldest, a daughter, who died several years ago.

Mrs. Kate M. Sandford, the widow of Col. John Sandford, who was shot and killed at Covington, Ky., by State Senator John Goebel, was adjudged to be of unsound mind in the court at Lexington last week.

AS A MEDICAL MINT.

You should be well and see that your blood is rich and pure and your whole system well.

As a medical mint, Hood's Sarapalla will be free from malaria, typhoid fever, colds and the grippe. Dr. Carleton's German Liver Powder is also good.

For your Cold try Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam. Price 25¢ and 50¢ a bottle.

For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

St. Bernard Drug Store.

HENDERSON has a good rain and quite a wind storm Saturday evening, but no damage was done in city. Out in the country two men were very badly hurt by a barn blowing over, in which they had taken refuge.

The labor agitators are here, chief among them being a Mr. Purcell. They are working to convince the people that much good would come to them and others by organizing, but it seems they are unable to convince any one.

Some interest is taken in the traveling library in charge of that gentle, earnest soldier of the cross, Mrs. S. F. Falls, who has labored diligently for the good and happiness of all for so many years. This traveling library has evidently done much good among the miners and mountaineers of Eastern Kentucky. Some philanthropic minds in Louisville are behind

"By Industry we Thrive."

LOCAL NEWS.

Lawyer Jonson went to Madisonville Monday.

Miss Annie Moore, of Henderson, is visiting here.

Lloyd O'Brien, of Paducah, is visiting relatives here.

Andrew Clark, of Paducah, is visiting his mother here.

Charley Robinson has been quite sick for a week or more.

Frank Rash is visiting relatives in Henderson this week.

Mrs. Charlie Patterson visited in Madisonville, this week.

There will be a barbecue at the Elk Creek bridge Saturday.

Miss Laura Ligon, of Trenton, was here a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lloyd have returned home from their bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCulley visited in Crofton and Empire last week.

Mrs. J. F. Lloyd and Miss Molie Vanasor were in Madisonville, Monday.

Misses Lanie and Ledia Cozart spent last week with their aunt in Madisonville.

Miss Florence McGregor, of St. Charles, is visiting the family of W. R. Coyle.

Sold by St. Bernard Drugstore.

Episcopal Services.

Bishop Dudley, of the Episcopal church has designated Rev. John Dusart to hold services in Madisonville and Earlington on alternate Sundays.

Last Sunday Mr. Dusart filled his first appointment and gave a most excellent sermon on the "Friendship of Jesus," the ideal friendship.

The next appointment will be the first Sunday evening in August at 7:30 o'clock, at Assembly Hall.

The following Sunday week, or the third Sunday in August, the service will be held in Assembly Hall at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Dusart extends a cordial invitation to our citizens to attend the services.

Best way to invest 25 cents.

ATLANTA, Miss., July 1st, 1898.

New Spender Medicine Co.

I want to tell you what I think of your Nubian Tea. I have used it myself and it is all that you claim for it. It is the best Liver Medicine I ever tried. It is just the tea to take if you feel bad and are bilious.

A. B. LANCASTER.

Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

CARRIER PIGEONS' SPEED.

The average speed of a carrier pigeon in calm weather is 1,200 yards a minute. With a strong wind in the direction of flight some pigeons have covered 1,900 yards a minute.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery.

Mr. S. A. Sanders, writing from Cincinnati, Ohio, tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her work again. This medicine is a great relief for many diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headaches, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle worker medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents." Sold by St. Bernard Drugstore.

Will Marry.

Mr. Sam Wiser, a popular L. & N. employee, will leave tomorrow for New Vienna, O., where he will be married to Miss Lorella Williams, a young lady of that city.

They will visit Cincinnati, Louisville and other points, and will return to Earlington in about two weeks. We wish them much happiness in life.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cincinnati, Ohio, says: "I have seen a great deal of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others, and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. Sold by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlington, Ben T. Robinson, Morton Gap; George King, St. Charles.

Gave Up All Hope.

Mr. F. P. Tillard, a young son of Louis Prickett, 507 Bryan Ave., Danville, La., was badly hurt by jumping from a moving wagon, near St. Charles, Saturday evening.

"I have received more benefit from one bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure than from months of treatment by physicians," writes V. B. Conklin of Bowersville, Ohio. Campbell & Co.

The Old Maids' Convention.

The Old Maids' Convention at the Assembly Hall last Friday night was well attended and much enjoyed. Mrs. Milam, who had charge of the entertainment, left for Madisonville Sunday.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve.

Was the result of his splendid health, indomitable will and tremendous energy not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidney, Heart, Brain, etc., in order, were in their qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. Kies New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25¢ at St. Bernard Drug Store.

Gone East.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Moore and children left for Beach Haven, N. J., Sunday morning, where they will join Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, and remain for a few weeks.

Would Have Cost Him His Life.

I have been using Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it gave me permanent cure of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life. I recommend it to any one afflicted with kidney trouble.

Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky. Campbell & Co.

GOLD DUST
THE BEST
Washing Powder

THE CAVE PARTY.

Quite a Crowd Left Earlington to Visit the Mammoth Cave

The cave party left Monday morning on the 11 o'clock train for Evansville, where they will take the steamer, Crescent City, a Green River packet, and journey up to Bowling Green, and from there they will go by rail to this wonderful cavern of Kentucky. It will no doubt be a delightful trip, and one that will be enjoyed. Those that composed the party from this place were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGary, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Toombs, Mrs. S. E. Stevens, Mrs. M. Bourland; Misses Minnie Bourland, Lillie Robinson and Annie Ashby; Messrs. Bryan Hopper, Henry Bourland, Jesse Phillips and Harry Bramwell. Dr. W. K. Nisbet and wife, and Mr. Brick Southworth and mother, of St. Charles, were also in the party, and four ladies of Dixon joined them at Slaughterville—Misses Baker, Ramsey, Jackson and Mrs. Jackson.

They will return by way of Green River and Evansville, and expect to be back Sunday.

Wonderful Discovery.

LUNSFORD, ALA., April 15, 1898. New Spender Medicine Co.

Dear Sirs:—I have been troubled with liver and stomach complaint. I had a special and unusual remedy which I used to take as a preventive of suffering, but I failed to do so well. I began to use your valuable Nubian Tea. I used about two dollars worth of it, and it did me more good than all the medicines I ever took. I have gained weight and health is very good. I can sit soundly and my appetite is excellent. I can recommend Plaster's Nubian Tea to the world as being a God-send to any community. Any one who doubts this statement is every particular and any statement from any one to the contrary are absolutely false. My address is Kuttawa, Lyco County, Ky.

CAPTAIN STONE

Replies Directly to Goebel's Much Delayed Denial.

TELLS WHERE HE LIVES.

Senator Goebel has at last attempted a denial of the direct charges of Capt. W. J. Stone as to the former's rascality in the Democratic State convention. It has taken Goebel since about June 28 to concoct a reply to the gallant captain's charges. Capt. Stone's statements are direct and answers immediately this repeated denial of the "King of Kenton" by writing the following letter to the Louisville Evening Post:

KUTTAWA, Ky., July 15, 1898.—Editor Evening Post.—The statements made by Mr. John T. Barnett, who has been the city marshal of Earlington for about eleven years resigned the position Monday, and Mr. Riley Coyle was appointed to fill the place.

Mr. Barnett has made a very efficient officer during his years of service, but owing to his other business interests and bad health, he thought it best to send in his resignation. Mr. Coyle has been a citizen of Earlington for a long time, and will no doubt make a good officer.

Good for the Children.

Mrs. Ella Johnson, of Illinois, Ala., writes August 10, 1898:—"I advise mothers to give their children Planter's Nubian Tea when they are peevish or fretful. I keep this medicine in the house and when the children are ailing I give them a dose and that is the last of it."

Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

IS IT RIGHT

For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

The Sylvan Valley News, Brewster, N. C., says: "It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various patent medicines with flood tide manner, yet as a preventive of suffering we find it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. There are many cases of colic and diarrhea which cannot be relieved by any other means, and in many cases the presence of a physician would be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years." This remedy is for sale by St. Bernard Drugstore.

A Remarkable Rescue.

Mr. Michael Curtiss, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which caused on her nose a swelling treasured for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her doctor suggested Dr. Kies' New Discovery for Consumption; he bought a bottle and prescribed it to her. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.

Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at St. Bernard Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Dickens' Best Book.

From the Philadelphia Record.

It is well known among literary people that Charles Dickens considered "David Copperfield" the best of his novels, but occasions when he actually expressed that opinion are so rare that it is worth while to recall an incident which happened while he was in Philadelphia.

Mr. Michael Curtiss, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which caused on her nose a swelling treasured for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her doctor suggested Dr. Kies' New Discovery for Consumption; he bought a bottle and prescribed it to her. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.

Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at St. Bernard Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

A Card of Thanks.

After more than ten years of arduous labor as marshal of the city of Earlington, my health and business interests have demanded my resignation. In surrendering the office so long intrusted to me, I desire to tender my heartfelt thanks to the good citizens of Earlington who have aided me in the discharge of the duties of the office, which in many cases were unpleasant and difficult. And am especially grateful to the honorable Mayor, City Council and Judge Cowell for their support.

I desire to congratulate the Council upon the selection of my successor who is in every way worthy of the honor and trust bestowed.

ST. BERNARD COAL CO.

Miss McDowell will render the following, Saturday evening, July 22: "Robert! O! Robert," "Asa-pando," "Moonbeams," "Lenora," "Who is at My Window," and others. Proceeds for the benefit of colored people's library.

The young men of Madisonville are making preparations for the Fair Hop, on Friday night, during Fair week.

Volcanic Eruptions.

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Buckle's Aronica Salve cures them, also Old Rueenig and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Pustules, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Bursa, Scabs, Chapped Hands, Fingers, Piles, Ulcers on earth, Driven out Piles and Aches. Only 25¢ a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

A new swindle is reported.

Agents secure permission to tack up signs, then ask the farmer to sign agreements not to tear them down for ninety days. These innocent looking agreements subsequently prove to be ninety-day notes for $300.—Exchange.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery.

Mr. S. A. Sanders, writing from Cincinnati, Ohio, tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her work again. This medicine is a great relief for many diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headaches, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle worker medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents." Sold by St. Bernard Drugstore.

Will Marry.

Mr. Sam Wiser, a popular L. & N. employee, will leave tomorrow for New Vienna, O., where he will be married to Miss Lorella Williams, a young lady of that city.

They will visit Cincinnati, Louisville and other points, and will return to Earlington in about two weeks. We wish them much happiness in life.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea.

Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cincinnati, Ohio, says: "I have seen a great deal of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others, and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. Sold by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlington, Ben T. Robinson, Morton Gap; George King, St. Charles.

Gave Up All Hope.

Mr. F. P. Tillard, a young son of Louis Prickett, 507 Bryan Ave., Danville, La., was badly hurt by jumping from a moving wagon, near St. Charles, Saturday evening.

"I have received more benefit from one bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure than from months of treatment by physicians," writes V. B. Conklin of Bowersville, Ohio. Campbell & Co.

The Old Maids' Convention.

The Old Maids' Convention at the Assembly Hall last Friday night was well attended and much enjoyed. Mrs. Milam, who had charge of the entertainment, left for Madisonville Sunday.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve.

Was the result of his splendid health, indomitable will and tremendous energy not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidney, Heart, Brain, etc., in order, were in their qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. Kies New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25¢ at St. Bernard Drug Store.

Gone East.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Moore and children left for Beach Haven, N. J., Sunday morning, where they will join Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, and remain for a few weeks.

Would Have Cost Him His Life.

I have been using Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it gave me permanent cure of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life. I recommend it to any one afflicted with kidney trouble.

Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky. Campbell & Co.

HAS RESIGNED.

Marshal Barnett Resigns and is Succeeded by Mr. Riley Coyle.

Mr. John T. Barnett, who has been the city marshal of Earlington for about eleven years resigned the position Monday, and Mr. Riley Coyle was appointed to fill the place.

Mr. Barnett has made a very efficient officer during his years of service, but owing to his other business interests and bad health, he thought it best to send in his resignation. Mr. Coyle has been a citizen of Earlington for a long time, and will no doubt make a good officer.

He Had a Good "Jag."

Monday night Virgil Patterson, an ebony-hued citizen of this place, tanked up on mean whiskey, and proceeded to have a "hot time." He had the time for awhile, and when he pays his fine, he will no doubt think it was a "warm one," indeed. He wanted to run things to suit himself, and having a piece of "blue" hardware" on his person pulled that and began shooting promiscuously. He fired several shots, when Officer Morgan took a band in the affair and placed him under arrest. He wanted to make a "scrap" out of it, and it required several to subdue him. However, he was taken to the lockup, and later on was brought before Judge Cowell, who gave him $40 and the costs, on three charges, resisting an officer, carrying concealed deadly weapons, and dis

